SPECIAL SESSIONS' STREAMS PROPOSALS – deadline extended

The 43rd AMASES Conference will take place at the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science and the Department of Economics of the University of Perugia.

SPECIAL SESSIONS' STREAM PROPOSALS

Streams of special sessions organization are encouraged. A Stream is composed of one or more Special Sessions; each Special Session is composed by three/four contributions.

Special sessions aim to provide a forum for focused discussions on new mathematical techniques or innovative applications of established approaches for the solution of economic and financial problems.

Please submit your proposals to the Conference email: convegno.amases2019@unipg.it.

Proposals have to report the following information:

- Title of the Stream
- Titles of the (possible) Special Sessions
- First attempt title, authors and short (few lines) or full extended abstract of each contribution.

The new deadline for Stream proposals is March 27th. Contributions have to be organized in sessions of three/four presentations. Proposals of sessions with a lower number of contributions can be accepted, provided that they could be integrated with a call for other contributions on the same topic. Authors of invited papers and abstracts have to respect submission rules and deadlines of regular contributions. The organizers of accepted sessions are expected to attend and chair the session. Authors will be limited to one presentation per registration.

TOPIC AREAS

Suggested topics include, but are not limited to, the following research and application areas:

- Actuarial Mathematics
- Decision Theory
- Dynamic Models
- Financial Mathematics
- Game Theory
- Mathematical Economics
- Numerical methods
